

Joining together, making a difference.

Joining together, making a difference.

Joining together, making a difference.

Joining together, making a difference.

Kumar, a resident of a village in southern India's Nagapattinam District, works on a community project to repair a pond that was damaged by the tsunami on Dec. 26, 2004. (Photo by Dan Marschka)

MCC works to alleviate poverty, promote peace and justice and provide disaster relief in more than 50 countries around the world.
MCC seeks to demonstrate God's love by serving "In the name of Christ."
Visit mcc.org to learn more.

Kumar, a resident of a village in southern India's Nagapattinam District, works on a community project to repair a pond that was damaged by the tsunami on Dec. 26, 2004. (Photo by Dan Marschka)

MCC works to alleviate poverty, promote peace and justice and provide disaster relief in more than 50 countries around the world.
MCC seeks to demonstrate God's love by serving "In the name of Christ."
Visit mcc.org to learn more.

Kumar, a resident of a village in southern India's Nagapattinam District, works on a community project to repair a pond that was damaged by the tsunami on Dec. 26, 2004. (Photo by Dan Marschka)

MCC works to alleviate poverty, promote peace and justice and provide disaster relief in more than 50 countries around the world.
MCC seeks to demonstrate God's love by serving "In the name of Christ."
Visit mcc.org to learn more.

Kumar, a resident of a village in southern India's Nagapattinam District, works on a community project to repair a pond that was damaged by the tsunami on Dec. 26, 2004. (Photo by Dan Marschka)

MCC works to alleviate poverty, promote peace and justice and provide disaster relief in more than 50 countries around the world.
MCC seeks to demonstrate God's love by serving "In the name of Christ."
Visit mcc.org to learn more.